

10. A student is investigating the following statement about natural numbers.

“ $n^3 - n$ is a multiple of 4”

(a) Prove, using algebra, that the statement is true for all odd numbers.

(4)

(b) Use a counterexample to show that the statement is not always true.

(1)