

7

(a) In this question you must show detailed reasoning.

Find the range of values of the constant m for which the simultaneous equations $y = mx$ and $x^2 + y^2 - 6x - 2y + 5 = 0$ have real solutions. [5]

(b) Give a geometrical interpretation of the solution in the case where $m = 2$. [3]